

Spend Life Traveling

FROM SHORT TRIPS TO LIVING & WORKING AROAD

ABOUT

My name is Sanne, born and raised in the Netherlands. I first moved abroad when I was 17 and have been exploring the world ever since. So far I have lived in 14 countries and traveled to many more. I am a traveler, an entrepreneur and a digital nomad.

With a background in marketing & web design I created Spend Life Traveling to have a platform to share detailed information about destinations all over the world. From short trips to round-the-world travel. Together with a select group of guest bloggers I create in-depth content to help others explore the world and make informed travel decisions.
